

1. Which of the following gases do plants produce as a waste product during photosynthesis?

- A. propane
- B. carbon dioxide
- C. hydrogen
- D. oxygen

2. Tia has labeled the following diagram of a plant. Now she needs to add descriptions for each of the parts.

Which description should she write for the flower?

- A. uses energy from the sun, carbon dioxide, water and nutrients to make food for the whole plant
- B. physically supports the leaves, flowers, and fruit and contains tissues that transport water and nutrients
- C. attracts insects for pollination
- D. take in water and nutrients from the soil